

Appendix G

Standard Screening Instruments Not Requiring Submission with Research Protocols

In addition to the measures listed below, neuropsychological tests that are referred to in the following texts do not require copies attached to the IRB protocol submission. The following texts are definitive:

1. Handbook of Normative Data for Neuropsychological Assessment (Mitrushina, M.N., et al; Oxford UP; 2nd edition)
2. A Compendium of Neuropsychological Tests (Strauss, E., et al; Oxford UP; 3rd edition)
3. Neuropsychological Assessment (Lezak, M.D. et al.; Oxford UP; 4th edition).

If an investigator has any questions about whether a neuropsychological measure requires submission to the IRB, he or she should contact the IRB Director. Recommendations about adding other standard assessment measures to this Appendix can also be made.
